This is Calvin Christian High School's (CCHS) showcase event for area middle school students and parents to learn about the amazing opportunities that await students at

CCHS! Please bring your middle school students and/or invite neighbors and friends with middle school students and discover:

- Why parents want their children to learn, grow, and develop their faith at Calvin
- How Calvin students, teachers and staff build strong and caring relationships
- Our amazing teachers who mentor while teaching Calvin's Christ-centered curriculum
- The ways we glorify God through athletics, the arts, and our clubs
- Our internship-based Ambassador High program
- Our unique Spanish Immersion and dual enrollment opportunities

Middle school students and parents will learn more about the unique mission and vision of CCHS through:

- Student-led tours
 - Department presentations on our rich, faith-integrated curriculum
 - An opportunity to meet guidance counselors, teachers, coaches and club sponsors
 - Information about our internship-based Ambassador High program

Reminder:

If you take your own ball to school to use during break, please label it with your name.

School Directory

A district wide directory will be emailed to parents some time this fall. If you do not want your information included in that directory, please let the office know. The directory includes: student's name, grade level, home phone, address, father's name and email, mother's name and email. This information is gathered from power school demographic information.
